

A Tomoe River notebook is shown open, lying flat. It has two cream-colored pages with a light blue dot grid. The notebook is bound in a tan, textured cover with a blue elastic strap across the center. A blue paperclip is on the left page. To the right of the notebook is a silver pen with a tan grip and a tan strap with a silver buckle. The entire setup is on a dark blue background with a brown woven mat in the top left corner.
