

Galloping Horse Brings Prosperity

The horse is a vital animal in Chinese culture, representing the indomitable spirit of the Chinese nation. Horses are known for their loyalty and friendship, endearing qualities of fearlessness and self-improvement. Throughout Chinese art history, horses have been a persistent theme in almost every dynasty. In Greek mythology, the winged horse Pegasus represents freedom, power and triumph.

Horse, born in the Year of the Horse, are outgoing, sharp-minded, articulate and analytical. They are natural born leaders who are flexible in their decision-making and possess the courage to move forward.

In the Year of the Horse, celebrate your success with the 2026 limited edition. May you and your family enjoy a year full of energy, with the horse as your companion on your journey to prosperity. May good luck follow you every year and may the horse's spirit bring joy and happiness to your life!

YEAR OF THE HORSE 2026